Child poverty in Canada and Ontario since 1989

The percentage of children living in low-income families is lower in Ontario than in the rest of Canada, but continues to be higher than in 1989 when Ottawa pledged to end child poverty by 2000.

Just under a third of Bega Cheese's revenue (as of 2019) was from exports.[2] The cheese products are exported to 40 countries around the world and distributed across Australia where they are available in most supermarkets and general stores.[1][4][5] Their other major business segments include bulk "core dairy ingredients" such as cheese, cream cheese and powdered milk (making up approximately 35% of their revenue) and "nutritional products" produced under the Bega Bionutrients brand (such as lactoferrin and milk protein concentrate),[6] which make up around 9% of their revenue.[2] In September 2017, it was announced that Bega Cheese would be the sponsor for Mumbulla Foundation 2017 gala dinner.[7] In 2019, the company won a legal dispute with Kraft Heinz over the packaging of their peanut butter.[8] In 2020, Kraft Heinz appealed the case to the Federal Court of Australia, but was dismissed.[9] In 2021, the two companies had reached a confidential settlement.[10] In 2020, the company raised significant funds to purchase Kirin's suite of dairy products, including Dairy Farmers and Pura Milk.
